Handbell music doesn't get more useful – or wonderful – than this! Julie Turner has crafted a versatile setting of two hymns (ELLACOMBE and REGENT SQUARE) that are suitable for Easter, Christmas, or general worship. Play the tunes separately or combine them as a short medley. Either way, this bold arrangement is sure to please. The whole piece is 117 measures in length but each song can be rung by itself.

Shall We Gather at the River

Robert Lowry/Ron Mallory

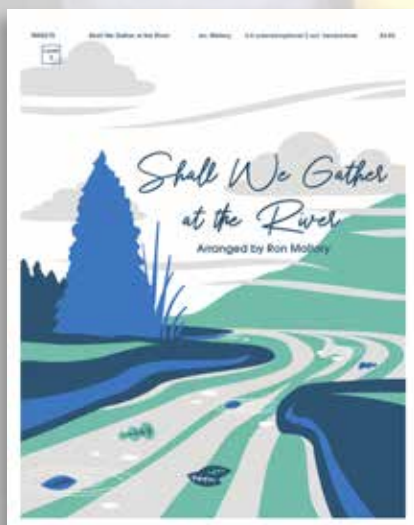

3-5 Octaves • Level 3

MRW8278

$4.95 $4.21

Ron Mallory's interpretation of the favorite hymn by Robert Lowry is truly fresh and innovative. It opens with the Singing Bell technique and optional handchimes setting a slow, freely flowing mood that brings to mind the river in the title. This feeling continues as the main melody progresses, before giving way to a bold and majestic section. Finally, the flowing of the river returns and leads to the end of this musical journey. This one is sure to become a favorite for years to come.

Pax

Kyle Webber

3-5 Octaves • Level 3

MRW8281

~~$4.95~~ $4.21

“Pax”, of course, means peace, and this original from the talented pen of Kyle Webber is peaceful, flowing, and prayerful. The piece journeys through many changes in moods, tempos, and meters (use the optional handchimes if you can!) but always comes back to the original theme and melody. A perfect choice for a reflective moment in worship or concert.
