Beginning Handbells for Children - Christmas

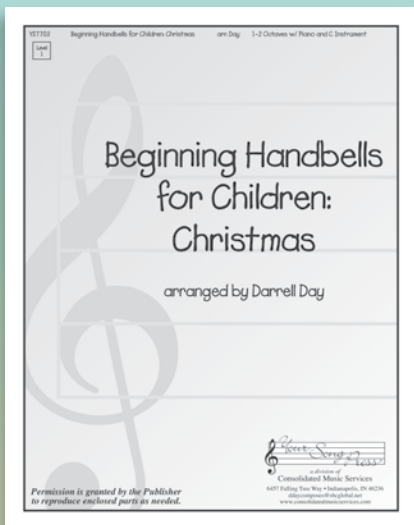

Arr. Darrell Day

2 Octaves • Level 1

MYS7703

~~$9.99~~ $8.99

This series is designed to help young people read melodies and hear their particular pitches within the context of that melody. The bells play the single-note melody line, while a piano and C-instrument complement the melody. Handchimes, Belleplates, and the 20-25 note colored bell sets will also work well. Permission is granted to photocopy the music.

Solo violin plays the beautiful melody while three octaves of handbells add chordal accompaniment in this setting by Darrell Day. The bell part is on the easier side of Level 2, making it more accessible to beginning choirs than its rating suggests. 40 measures.

The flute is not optional in this very simple arrangement for handbell quartet and C flute. The flute first states the melody in its lowest register. The second verse is joined by the bells adding a repetitive rhythmic figure for accompaniment. The roles then reverse with the bells on melody and the flute on counter-melody. Both instruments play from the same score.

Based on Matthew 11:28-29, this text reminds listeners that God will give rest to those who are 'heavy laden'. 4 handbells (C6, D6, E6, & G6) begin the piece, then are joined by the piano and flute leading into the vocal line, which may be sung by a soloist or unison voices. The individual parts intertwine in this original composition to create a lovely ensemble piece, in which all parts are necessary.

Tis the Season... for a musical!

Great Christmas Giveaway

By Darrell Day
2-4 Octaves • Level 2
MYS7736

Edwin Boniface is a Scrooge-like character completely caught up in his own little world and while he isn't as anti-social as the Dickens character, he does tend to ignore anyone or anything other than his dry cleaning business. At the insistence of his mother, Edwin begrudgingly takes on the responsibility of selecting Christmas presents for his family members, a task formerly taken care of by his late wife.

It's late when Edwin finally finishes his work for the day and all the stores are closed. As "luck" would have it, he stumbles across a street peddler, from whom he attempts to buy one item. The peddler insists that he buy all the remaining merchandise. Not knowing what he will do with the extra items, Edwin eventually agrees. Upon closer inspection, he discovers that he now has a gift for everyone on his list and he hurries back to his office to wrap them. However, to add insult to injury (in his eyes), Edwin is forced to hand-deliver the gifts to his relatives, as it is too close to Christmas for them to be sent through the post office. Disgruntled, Edwin sets out to play Santa.

With the help of a new-found friend and a little Christmas "magic", as Edwin interacts with his family, he comes to realize that Christmas is about more than simply giving presents to those closest to you. He sees that his gifts, so reluctantly given, have impacts far beyond what he could have imagined. Through the grace of God, they have become "The Great Christmas Giveaway."

A musical for 12-13 adult singer/actors plus choir, with keyboard and handbell accompaniment.
