Tower Swings and Echos provide warmth and tenderness to this arrangement of the revered PASSION CHORALE.

At Level 1+ it is attainable by any ensemble but even groups with more experience will find a challenge in perfecting the musicianship of their techniques. The two versions are compatible, making this a great choice for festivals, concerts, and events with multiple groups.

Unlike most original handbell compositions, "Calvary Melody" is a Level 1+ piece. And while quite accessible for any ensemble, this thoughtful and tender work is worthy of more advanced groups when subtle dynamic changes and careful attention to the melody are performed. The imagery portrayed by this poignant music brings us to Calvary and enables us to reflect inward during Lent. The two versions are compatible for use at festivals, concerts, and events with multiple groups.

"Shall We Gather at the River" never sounded so inviting and so pleasant than it does in this thoughtful rendition. Flowing harmonies and tender phrasing accentuate the melody so carefully crafted through the skillful use of handbells, handchimes and cello. Cello is not optional since it carries the melody line, but any C instrument may be substituted. The most challenging aspects of the handbell part are the dotted sixteenth rhythms and the key change.
