Handbell Choir - Secular Concert & Festival

Allegro from Eine Kleine Nachtmusik

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

arr. William E. Gross

Mozart wrote Eine Kleine Nachtmusik, K. 525, in 1787 for chamber music ensemble but it was not published until 1827, after his death. This handbell transcription by William Gross is faithful to the original work and ringers and audience alike will enjoy it immensely.

Bethena

Scott Joplin

arr. Paul W. Allen

This ragtime waltz was written in 1905 and combines both classical waltz and ragtime style. Paul has nicely adapted it for handbells. It is graceful and takes advantage of subtle tempo nuances and dynamic expressions. Several key changes and segues lead to all of the variations plus there are several repeats, which may offer opportunities to adjust performance time if necessary. This is sure to become a staple in your concert repertoire.

Blanco y Azul (White and Blue)

José Ignacio Quintón

arr. Carlos J. Ávila

This delightful Puerto Rican dance is one of many danzas written by gifted Puerto Rican pianist and composer, José Ignacio Quintón. "Blanco y Azul" (White and Blue) is elegant and graceful, much in the style of European ballroom dance scenes, complete with elegant gowns and evening wear for the men. The melody is engaging and the gentle rhythmic accompaniment does make one want to dance! This is a 2022 Distinctly Bronze West selection.

California, Here I Come!

Buddy DeSilva, Joseph Meyer, and Al Jolson

arr. Sondra K. Tucker

It seems as if this song should be the 'State Song' of California, but several attempts at doing that have failed. However, it has been used frequently in a wide variety of settings – and here, Sondra has created a delightful and completely accessible arrangement for handbells. The bass is mostly malleted, and her creative treatment of the melody, dynamics, and the dancing, upbeat tempo will make this a wonderful staple in your concert repertoire!

Frolic Flight of the Hummingbird

Kurt Meyer

This original composition is written specifically for handbells with optional flute and percussion. It is a sonic representation of the journey of a hummingbird. The sheer delight that is conveyed through bell techniques such as mallet, TD, LV and shakes and more is amazing! The addition of flute and the simple percussion provides just the right support to make this a ringer and audience favorite!

Ícaro

Félix S. Martínez

The word Ícaro means “magic song” in some languages, and ‘magic song’ certainly reflects the creativity of this amazing piece! Beginning in 5/4, the malletted bass line, mid-range melody, and higher treble melody engage in a melodic, flowing contrapuntal interplay. It then segues to an engaging Latin jazz ‘B’ section in 3/4 before returning to 5/4. A fun challenge for all Bronze level groups! “Ícaro” was chosen for Distinctly Bronze-West in October 2022.

Papillon

Brian Childers

This original and very expressive musical 'tone poem' will inspire listeners to visualize the miraculous development of a butterfly. The music reflects the metamorphosis and emergence from its chrysalis. In the sections "Awakening" and "Emerging," one can hear the first gentle attempts of moving its wings. "Taking Flight" features a lovely handchime melody with 16th-note patterns reflecting the fluttering of wings and glorious soaring. The addition of optional percussion will provide the perfect finishing touch. This will be a glorious addition to your group's concert repertoire!

Scherzo

Ludwig van Beethoven

arr. Frances Newell

Symphony No. 7 – Op. 92 by Beethoven was deemed by Beethoven himself to be one of his best works. It was immediately quite popular and movements from it were often requested as encores. Frances has nicely captured the orchestral feel of this 3rd movement with the lively Scherzo scored in 3/4 time; however, the Spirito pulse dances along in one.

A Maritime Christmas

arr. Caleb J. Onstead

This creative arrangement combines Joy to the World (ANTIOCH), I SAW THREE SHIPS, and IN DULCI JUBILO in an exciting setting perfect for your next holiday or Christmas concert! The interplay among the three tunes is engaging, lyrical, and rhythmic. Handchimes add nice texture and help bring out the melody in sections where there is a lot going on! This will be a fun and rewarding addition to your bronze repertoire.

This 'tone poem' is a series of musical themes describing a quest for peace. The sections flow seamlessly from one to the next and are identified in the score. This is a very creative work which contains lovely melody lines while adding unexpected yet very appropriate and satisfying elements throughout. An optional percussion score will further enhance this work. It is easily rung by a solid Level 3 group and is appropriate for both worship and concert.

Arise, My Soul, Arise!

Finnish Folk Tune

arr. Linda Boatright

The lyrics "Arise, my soul, Arise! Stretch forth to things eternal ..." were written by the Swedish hymn poet Johan Kahl and set to a Finnish folk tune. Linda Boatright has taken this simple tune and created a beautiful, sophisticated arrangement for handbells. The tune is featured in both the bass and treble bells with a variety of styles and accompaniments that will thoroughly engage everyone listening to this amazing work. It is rated 3+ since it is accessible by solid level 3 groups – but Level 4 and 5 ringers will find satisfaction in ringing it at tempo with maximum accuracy in dynamics, expression, and techniques.

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

arr. Brian Childers

Here is a fresh and exciting setting of the hymn tune BEECHER that is sure to be that perfect piece for a special celebration or worship service. The main theme is nicely established from the beginning but immediately, the creative style of this work appears. Handchimes add to the lovely texture and style, as do the optional alternate bells and the optional violin (or other C-instrument). This mostly rings at Level 3 but is rated as Level 4 due to quick tempos and fast-paced accidentals.

Never a Friend Like Jesus

Edward Joy

arr. Patricia Hurlbutt

Edward Joy, a Salvation Army officer, wrote this hymn, known by the title "All your Anxiety", after meditating on 1st Peter 5:7. This arrangement is beautifully crafted with lovely modulations through the three key changes and features the melody in both the bells and handchimes. The bells used chart may look daunting but accidentals are infrequent and this arrangement is quite accessible. This is a wonderful hymn, and will be a perfect addition to worship.

Un Regalo de Dios (Gift from God)

Elizabeth Peters

This creative and lyrical original work begins with a gentle and relaxed suspended bell passage in 5/4 that moves apace without feeling rushed. The engaging melody flows throughout and soon, a change to 6/8 time plus the addition of a bit of suspended bell obligato brings a new mood to this piece. It continues with a waltz feel with some unexpected but satisfying developments, eventually involving more bells and a sense of a bit more energy leading to the dynamic ending.

When Morning Gilds the Skies

Joseph Barnby, 1868

arr. Sondra K. Tucker

This beautiful hymn tune, LAUDES DOMINI, was written by Sir Joseph Barnby in 1868 specifically for this text. The hymn appears in over 600 different hymnals and has been arranged hundreds of times for a variety of choral and instrumental settings. Sondra Tucker's fresh setting of this hymn, musically rising as with the rising sun, gilds our spirits and fills us with the joy of a new morning and another praise-filled day. This is definitely a 'must-have' for all groups Level 3 and beyond to include in their worship and concert repertoire!

Little Jesus, Sweetly Sleep

Traditional Czech Carol

arr. Linda Scholes

This gentle, sweet tune is based on a traditional Czechoslovakian carol which includes equally sweet lyrics. The opening rhythm is representative of gentle rocking and supports the lovely, lyrical melody. Linda has kept the arrangement pure with the simple melody featured in both handbells and handchimes. This beautiful and sensitive arrangement will be a standard 'go-to' for your group for years to come.

Masters In This Hall

French dance tune

arr. Patricia Hurlbutt

Here is a delightful new setting of this holiday favorite! The brief introduction reflects Herbert's "March of the Toys" before featuring the "Masters..." main theme. The interplay of melody in treble, then in bass, with the accompaniment in the opposite clef is followed by a brief passage with stopped sound techniques, then a key change leading to an exciting ending. A variety of techniques and changing dynamics make this work very interesting to play and listen to and it is sure to be a 'must-have' title in your group's repertoire!

Hark! The Herald Angels Sing (solo)

Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy

arr. Kurt Meyer

Kurt has penned a fresh, creative setting of this perennial Christmas favorite for handbell solo, piano accompaniment, and optional C-instrument (flute). It is filled with expression, flowing accompaniment lines, and a contrapuntal C-instrument part. It begins in Eb major, then modulates to E major, leading to a faster tempo and a bit of excitement before it returns to a lovely, peaceful ending. This is the perfect addition to the handbell soloist's repertoire. Price includes all parts.
