Program Notes:

This ancient Christmas hymn, translated in 1582, has a wonderful message. Words are included with the music. It is in a minor key and the melody has a haunting quality. It will be a fresh addition to our usual Christmas fare.

The word ideo (pronounced ee-day-oh) is Latin for "therefore." The final "glory to God in the highest" ends with a joyous Major chord. Enjoy.

2, 3, 3 1/2, or 5 octaves
Handbells used: 15, 22, 25, or 33

Performance Notes: This arrangement will work well for three octave groups who have the 4th octave bass bells, thus the 3 1/2 note in the bells used chart. All of the staccato notes should be played very softly. Resist the urge to rush the tempo. If played on handchimes, the echos may be played with a finger on the side of the chimes or the articulation may be omitted. The same is true for the staccato notes.
