Pele is the Hawaiian goddess of fire and volcanoes. Small towns and entire forests have been wiped out by Pele's passionate, unpredictable, and volatile temper. This composition attempts to recreate the June 7, 2023 eruption of the volcano, Kilauea, creating a spectacle that intertwined both beauty and fear.

HEAR OUR PRAYERS

William E. Gross

Handbells used: 3, 4, or 5 octaves

The image shows the first six measures of the handbell part. It is written on a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The notes are arranged in a way that suggests the use of multiple octaves of handbells. There are 'optional' markings above and below the staff, indicating where certain notes can be omitted. A note at the bottom right states: '3 octave ensembles omit notes in () and []. 4 octave ensembles omit notes in [].' The music starts with a simple melody that gradually builds in complexity and intensity.

With Flowing Emotion $\text{♩} = 112$

The image shows the piano accompaniment for the first six measures. It is written on a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The music is marked with a piano (p) dynamic. The accompaniment provides a harmonic and rhythmic foundation for the handbell part, with a steady, flowing motion.

The image shows the piano accompaniment for measures 7 through 18. The music continues with a consistent rhythmic pattern, featuring a mix of chords and single notes. Dynamics range from piano (p) to forte (f) and piano-piano (pp). The accompaniment is designed to support the handbell part while adding depth and texture to the overall sound.

The image shows the piano accompaniment for measures 19 through 30. This section of the piece features more complex harmonic structures and dynamic contrasts, including piano (p) and mezzo-piano (mp) markings. The accompaniment maintains its flowing, emotional character throughout, providing a rich backdrop for the handbell melody.
