Conducting Choirs Vol 3

The third volume of "Conducting Choirs" is written for the working conductor. One chapter addresses the concerns of those who wish to broaden their knowledge about conducting instrumentalists. Another focuses on conducting musicals and opera. Yet other chapters are directed at those conductors who wish to delve more deeply into the stylistic aspects of various performance practices, who wish to incorporate movement into the rehearsal process, or who are interested in commissioning new music for their ensembles, but who may be unsure of how to proceed.

Published in England this instructional book with accompanying ringer's book is about tune ringing on handbells. It has been written primarily for beginners and for those who may find it is useful to follow the structured course for learning to play more competently from standard musical notation. This ten-session course leads to an informal concert in the last session, to which friends can be invited. A small set of twelve bells (C5 to G6 diatonic) is used throughout the book. Written by a retired music educator in England. The book uses terms spoken in England rather than the USA.

Note Reading Worksheets

MDT3005

$17.50

The author Carol Dare writes: "In several years of teaching beginning bell groups of all ages I found it was easy to teach rhythmic values while teaching the ringing stroke but more difficult to teach notes names to new ringers who were intent on following only their own two notes. Therefore, I taught note reading by setting aside a short period of time to use the materials I had developed when teaching music at the elementary school level. I could present a concept at the end of a ringing session and send a worksheet home with the new ringers. My experience has convinced me that these extensive drills focused on isolated concepts of the staff - spaces, lines, and stepwise motion - facilitate learning more efficiently than a few drills of words spelled on the staff."

Now there is a beginning book for 2 octaves that introduces the same ringing and reading skills as UP AND RINGING! - Carol Dare's earlier method book for 3 octaves. The two books are not compatible because the drills and performance pieces in BUILDING BASIC SKILLS have been rescored to sound good with 2 octaves. Although the pedagogical material works with smaller groups of ringers, the actual performance pieces will only sound good with a full 2 octave group. This text is designed to teach ringers basic ringing skills one step at a time and to provide the director a "ready to use" set of materials.

The Learning to Ring series is a complete handbell curriculum. It is based on the premise that ringing skills should be taught in conjunction with good rhythmic skills. The series provides the director with the knowledge, insights, and tools necessary to develop these skills in new ringers, even if they do not read music.

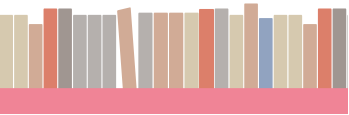

Special Effects for Handchimes

Dr. Paul Rosene

MJHS9455

The use of handchimes, both as a regular choir and as an interesting addition to the handbell sound, is widespread. Composer, arrangers and directors are finding ways to include the “heavenly sounds” of the modern handchime within handbell compositions. While the standard technique required to play them is understood, many directors are unsure of how to achieve certain of the special effects with handchimes. This resource book explains how handchimes can perform the special effects often used on handbells.

22 Games for Teaching Music Facts

"One of the best ways to teach music facts to our choir members is through the use of music games. Children will learn the most complicated of rules in order to be able to play a game, if the games are fun". So writes the author of this folio of music games. Detailed instructions and drawings make this easy to understand and use in working with children. A total of 22 games are included.

Christmas Carols

2 oct Rating: Easy

MRBSP2391 $9.95

17 Christmas Carols for Children's Handbells. For the color-coded bells, this collection includes titles such as "Away in a Manger", "Joy to the World", "We Three Kings", and many more classic Christmas carols. If using the cards with this collection, the letter names are printed above the melody line, making it easier for the teacher and the students. Some useful tips are printed in the front of the collection. Permission to copy the arrangements for each bell ringer is granted.

Christmas Bells

2 oct Rating: Easy

MRBSP2388 $19.95

Melodies specifically arranged for eight, thirteen, and twenty note handbell sets. There are two songs for eight note set, three for 13 note sets, and 3 for twenty note sets.

These arrangements have been crafted to encourage beginning "first time" and moderately advancing players to pick up a bell and express the special joy found in the carols and songs of the Christmas Season. This package gives the directors of ensembles a wide variety of material to encourage their players in practice and performance. Every melody in "Christmas Bells" is accompanied by two digitally mastered CD tracks.

Easy Hymns for 8 Note Handbells

arr. Alan Hager

1 oct Rating: Easy

MRBSP2397 $19.95

These twelve favorite hymns can be played by beginning bell ringers using an 8 note C-c handbell set. The songs have been arranged so that either the melody method or chord method of playing can be used. The CD accompaniment includes performance and practice tracks and is also designed to be flexible for both methods of playing.

KidzRing Books

arr. Susan T. Nelson

"KidzRing" contains very easy music for pre-school through early elementary school aged children that can be played on any 13-20 note instruments such as Kidsplay handbells, Belleplates, Boomwhackers, Handchimes or Handbells. The "KidzRing" series is designed to grow with the children's abilities. Multiple arrangements are provided for the pieces, adding accompaniment which builds on the previous arrangement. It is intended for pre-reading through beginning note reading; as a bridge between color coded music and standard beginning handbell literature. Although it is designed for very young ringers, this is not color-coded music.

Bell Tree Stands

Our Bell Tree Stands make the use of bell trees and malleted bells easier! Bell handles are held securely in place by inconspicuous O-rings that can be positioned according to your needs. Stands are 50" tall in their lowest position, but can be extended to 61", 65", 69", or 73" to accommodate the number of arms needed. Base measures 24" across, weighs about 14 lbs., and breaks down into two pieces for easy storage and transport. The adjustable feet provide stability on uneven surfaces and are interchangeable with the locking casters for more mobility. Each stand comes with 2 arms, 4 locking casters, a pack of O-rings, and all assembly hardware. Additional arms and casters are available.
