

NEW MUSIC for HANDBELLS and HANDCHIMES

Summer/Fall 2017

RED RIVER MUSIC

BEHOLD THAT STAR

3-5 octaves
RRBL5082

This Thomas Talley tune, in the style of a spiritual, will be a nice addition to many Christmas programs. A few easily played sixteenth notes lift the difficulty a bit, but it will be a good choice for groups just moving up to sixteenth note patterns. Otherwise, it is just solid ringing with a few echoes, making it very accessible.

Swing it! ($\text{♩} = \text{♩}$) $\text{♩} = 92$

Staccato-dotted notes - mallets or TD. In most instances, mallets are preferred. However, in some measures they may prove difficult to maneuver where both ringing and muted notes are played in close proximity; in these places the decision should be the director's.*

Hart Morris brings us this fantastic setting of the Burt Bacharach favorite with an arrangement that is sure to become a classic. It works very well with just handbells and the optional handchimes, but adding the optional clarinet, bass, and drums will transform it into a genuine show stopper. Be prepared to do a reprise on this one – your audience will demand it!

SKIDAMARINK

3-5 octaves
RRG5019

The tempo, the swinging rhythms, and the many bell changes (to say nothing of the triplets!) make this offering from Patricia Hurlbutt a real challenge. It is, however, worth the extra work, as this arrangement absolutely sparkles. You will totally WOW your audience with this one!
